This second-floor unit in the Pacifico building at Laz Terrazas offers over 3,000 square feet of extraordinary single level living, and access to Club Punta Mita amenities and experiences, afforded only to owners within our gates.

Known for its central location, boutique design, and expansive terraces, Las Terrazas is located on the 14th fairway of Pacifico Golf Course and is a short walk or golf cart ride away to beach clubs, Golf, Tennis & Fitness facilities.

P22 is one of only 27 total units at Laz Terrazas, and the open floor concept offers the peaceful viewscapes of the Careyeros hillside in Punta Mita and beautiful sunset skies.

Inside this large condominium there are many extras to delight the senses, from the white stone accent wall upon entry, tropical wood carpentry and built-ins throughout, natural stone flooring, modern kitchen, and custom furniture... this space is like stepping into the pages of a travel magazine, where you can live the Punta Mita dream, without a large investment.

The outdoor kitchen and bar niche adjunct is the perfect spot to enjoy the expansive terrace and take in the views. The living room and kitchen have walls of large sliding glass doors, leading to the expansive 1,200+ square-foot terrace and outdoor dining area. The dream kitchen offers clean white wood cabinetry and a large island for extra seating / serving space.

The master bedroom with direct access to the terrace showcases beautiful junglelike views from the king bed, and has an open walk-in closet space adjoining the expansive luxury master bathroom. The second bedroom suited with 2 double beds, offers flexibility for family and guests with an additional day bed, suitable for children.

A large storage room thoughtfully located off the main entry way houses a service bathroom, in addition to a beautiful guest bath and separate laundry located off the main hall.

This fully furnished this Las Terrazas unit includes 1 full parking space.
