Casa Fortuna in La Punta Estates remains one of Punta Mita's perennial favourites, offering a lifestyle defined by both grandeur and intimacy.

Designed by Architect Guillermo Michel, this masterwork feels like your own private boutique hotel, seamlessly retaining a homely feel for the next family generation to enjoy. The residence is thoughtfully composed to balance shared moments with personal sanctuary. Six well sized bedroom suites are built around the fabulous central courtyard, featuring central dining and living areas under the huge palapa roof, so emblematic of the Mexican pacific coastline.

For those seeking versatile spaces, a library doubles up as a home theatre, while terraces off the bedrooms, both oceanfront and private, allow for socializing or reading in total serenity.

Ownership at Casa Fortuna grants you more than just a home; it provides a key to the most coveted lifestyle in Mexico. Enjoy seamless access to the resort's numerous beach clubs, racquet center, fitness facility, and of course, two world-class golf courses designed by Jack Nicklaus, all just a few minutes away by golf cart.
